Catalogue

A close-up photograph of a modern interior design featuring wood-grain melamine panels. A white, flat surface is visible on the left, contrasting with the warm, textured wood grain of the panels. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the melamine.

A modern wardrobe system with a dark aluminum frame and glass doors. The interior is illuminated by warm LED lights. The wardrobe is organized with hanging clothes on the top and bottom sections. The top section features several white shirts and a striped shirt. The bottom section shows more white shirts and a dark jacket. A brown suitcase is visible in the middle section. The wardrobe is set against a light-colored wall, and a large green plant is visible on the left side.
